

Delegate Pam Queen Biography

Delegate Pamela Queen is a long-time resident of Legislative District 14 in Montgomery County. In the Maryland General Assembly, she champions legislation which benefits working families, supports education initiatives, improves the lives of veterans, and supports business ownership for women and minorities. As a member of the Judiciary Committee, she brings a unique perspective to advancing progressive public safety and criminal justice reform in Maryland. Delegate Queen, a military wife, mother, and college professor was born in New York City, graduated from D.C. public schools and Tuskegee University. She holds multiple master degrees from Johns Hopkins University and a Ph.D. from George Washington University.

Delegate Queen holds memberships in several community groups, including:

- League of Women Voters of Montgomery County
- Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Theta Omega Omega Chapter
- The Links, Incorporated, Patuxent River (MD) Chapter
- National Council of Negro Women, Incorporated, Montgomery County Section; and others.

Delegate Queen, a 2015 Emerge Maryland graduate contributes her impact in Annapolis to her passion for advocating for people; her proven record of accomplishment; her calm under pressure; and her pragmatic approach to getting things done.

Her slogan is to Listen, Learn, Advocate, and Act!